Historical Series books

This book seeks to understand the settlement process of an unproblematic and relatively small immigrant group during the century when the door to America was wide open and Dutch emigration reached its apex. Heitzenrater Nashville: Abingdon Press, 1991 , 82.

Christian Spirituality and Social Transformation

There is a tension here. Having identified such types, it is then possible to develop a framework what is called a typology that enables us to compare and contrast them and thus to understand their distinctive qualities. First, the appalling slaughter of the two World Wars, mid-century totalitarianism Nazism, Fascism, and Stalinism, the Holocaust, and then the birth of the atomic-nuclear age provoked an overwhelming sense of the destructive power of war and of human oppression.
