Why We Need to Reform Education Now

To improve our schools, we have to humanize them and make education personal to every student and teacher in the system.

Boarding Schools for Troubled Teens

We support passing legislation that will grant greater flexibility for administrators to enact change within their schools. National Center for Education Statistics, National Center for Education Statistics, 2001.

Reform School for Boys in Pennsylvania

Our in-class teachers and partnership with Liberty University Online produce an educational atmosphere that spurs a desire to succeed, while their peers who have been here longer also encourage them to reach their full potential. Common Core State Standards are a good first step towards higher performance but won't become the real standards in classrooms unless curriculum, teacher preparation, professional development, and assessment are all aligned and consistent. On the latest international test, called PISA Program in International Student Assessment, the scores of American students were unchanged over the past decade.

Reform school

It should be said that some people did find the reform they needed, though the early schools were still formed prior to much development of psychological theories.

Dozier School for Boys: Colson Whitehead's ‘The Nickel Boys’ recounts beatings and abuse in Florida

The reforms sought to make improvements in the critical elements of education systems: excellence in ; high for what every student should know and be able to do; next-generation and used to drive school improvement; and infrastructure to support 21st century learning.
