The Lonely Island (The Refuge of the Mutineers)

He possessed a powerful frame and commanding stature, was agile and athletic, and a favourite with officers and men. Nevertheless, there was scarcely a man on board of that ship on the evening in question who vouchsafed even a passing glance at a sunset which was marked by unwonted splendour. Meanwhile McCoy ran to warn Christian.

Thursday October Christian I

We have said that mutterings of deep discontent were heard on the quarter-deck. The playful creature, after giving him a kick in the face, consented to be placed on his shoulders. At last some of the men, losing patience, rushed at the hogs, seized them by ears and tails, and forcibly dragged them to the gangway.

Mutiny on the HMS Bounty

To whom does your amiable wish refer? They gave him no time to dress, but hurried him on deck, where, amid much confusion and many abusive cries, preparations were being made for getting out a boat, for it was resolved to set Bligh and his friends adrift. What moral suasion failed to effect, however, the weather accomplished.

There was a touch of McCoy senior in this barefaced attempt to divert attention from himself by criminating another. Other arrangements were soon made, and they sat down to breakfast, some using plates saved from the Bounty, others flat stones as substitutes, while empty cocoa-nut shells served for drinking-cups.

The one who stood nearest him, looking vacantly out upon the sea, was Matthew Quintal. Their demeanour helped persuade the two captains that had created a civilized society, and did not merit prosecution for the mutiny. The report of the musket and the accompanying yell brought the Otaheitan man Tetaheite to his side.
