GREEK TEACHERS STUDY CITY'S SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Research has not revealed that there is a standing mandates claim procedure for school districts to seek reimbursement for special education costs that exceed the state categorical allocation, however, so LEA responsibility to deliver services regardless of cost remains the same. Parents and children would be helped by greater outreach regarding their mental health entitlements and the programs available to them through federal and state health care plans. Sacramento, CA: Protection and Advocacy, Inc.

GREEK TEACHERS STUDY CITY'S

One unintended outcome of this policy has been that many students admitted to psychiatric hospitals have been automatically classified by the PPT as students with ED and eligible for special education by virtue of their hospitalization.
