If we require that students, upon submitting their applications, designate a Hakhoe member as guarantor, all applicants, since people associate with those similar to themselves, will be from gentle families. He understands faith in Amitābha as self-awareness and finds a final settlement or realization in this present moment, not in the future after death. Their actions with regard to the Way of illuminating morality and governing behavior have only occurred on paper, and as for the Way of providing beneficial use and helping the people, they have placed it entirely outside the realm of relevance.

Traditional scholar

When we believe deeply that we are foolish beings of karmic evil caught in the cycle of birth and death Samsāra , we find that Dharmākara is living deep within our sinful human reality and carries our sins and sufferings as our true self.
