

Forty-one years in India - from subaltern to commander-in-chief

Longmans, Green - Forty One Years in India from Subaltern to Commander in Chief by Earl Roberts of Kandahar

Description: -

-

India -- History -- British occupation, 1765-1947.

Generals -- Great Britain -- Biography.

Great Britain. -- Army -- Biography.

Roberts, Frederick Sleigh Roberts, -- Earl, -- 1832-1914. Forty-one years in India - from subaltern to commander-in-chief

-Forty-one years in India - from subaltern to commander-in-chief

Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 1908

Filesize: 64.110 MB

Tags: #41 #Years #in #India

Siege of Lucknow

The refugees from the fort, tired of their long imprisonment, had taken advantage of the security which they thought was assured by the arrival of the column to visit their deserted homes.

41 Years in India

Orders were also issued for the Nasiri battalion, stationed at Jutog, near Simla, and for the company of Native Artillery at Kangra and to march with all expedition to Philour, for the purpose of accompanying the siege-train; and for the Sirmur battalion of Gurkhas at Dehra Dun, and the Sappers and Miners at Rurki, to proceed to Meerut.

Full text of

The third boat floated down the stream, and of the number on board four eventually escaped — Lieutenants Thomson and Delafosse, both of the 53rd Native Infantry, Private Murphy of the 84th Foot, and Gunner Sullivan, of the Bengal Artillery.

Forty One Years in India from Subaltern to Commander in Chief by Earl Roberts of Kandahar

I was not at all prepared for this, and I determined to get on by hook or by crook ; as a preliminary measure, I made friends with the postmaster, from whose office the mail-carts started.

Frederick Sleigh, Lord Roberts (1832

Early the next morning, the 10th October, we reached Agra.

Forty One Years in India from Subaltern to Commander in Chief by Lord Roberts, First Edition

But we had had enough of street fighting at Delhi. Home thought the match must have gone out, and went forward again to relight it. This occurred about sunset, and all night the roar of musketry and artillery was kept up without a moment's cessation.

Forty One Years in India from Subaltern to Commander in Chief by Earl Roberts of Kandahar

The civil authorities in the district urged that the some course should be adopted with the 88rd, a Native Infantry regiment at Hoshiorpur, about twenty-seven miles from Jullundur, which it had been decided should join the column.

Related Books

- Occupant injury in road accidents - an investigation into occupant injury patterns in some recent mo
- Borneo - theJapanese p.o.w. camps : mail of the forces, p.o.w. and internees
- Native American portraits 1862-1918 - photographs from the collection of Kurt Koegler
- Chastnaia opera v Rossii - istoricheskii ocherk
- Discover educational toys for children