Descola, Philippe [WorldCat Identities]

Of contemporary cultural anthropology — whose attentions to the minutiae of the contemporary so struggled to impress Sahlins in his foreword — there is, in fact, precious little sign. This item may be a former library book with typical markings.

Some minor wear to the spine. An example of this is an institutionalized form of reciprocal violence that entitles a person to revert any harmful incidents or material another sent.

Ethnography Quotes (16 quotes)

What anthropology needs is to use these lessons to analyses and lay bare the reality of the human species project on this planet. Christian missionaries did not gain a foothold in Achuar society until the 1940s and 1950s.
