Foreign Influence at the Witness Table?

A government body should contact the lead department as early as possible to discuss a request for documents. Our membership levels offer a range of perks including an opt-in to receive the print magazine by mail.

Guidelines for appearing before and producing documents to Victorian inquiries

Committees of the Assembly have an important scrutiny, policy development and legislative role and proceedings are, therefore, relatively formal.

No. 13

You should consult DPC if you believe that you require legal representation when appearing before a committee.

Notes on the Responsibilities of Public Servants in Relation to Parliamentary Committees

If you are below this classification, you should seek advice from senior officials. Section 6 below deals with in camera evidence.

Notes on the Responsibilities of Public Servants in Relation to Parliamentary Committees

Thus the cornerstone of responsible government, as manifested in ministerial responsibility, ensures the supremacy of Parliament. Most committees have 11 members including a chairperson and a deputy chairperson.

Foreign Influence at the Witness Table?

The Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987 provides that a House of Parliament may impose terms of imprisonment or substantial fines for individuals and corporations as a penalty for contempt. This is ordinarily because the Committee has been asked to report to Parliament in a relatively short time frame and must commence hearings as soon as possible. You should carefully review this for accuracy.

Dark

Witnesses who nevertheless decide to publish their evidence should provide the committee with advance notice of their intentions.
