The presiding judge repeatedly upheld objections to these defense tactics. History of the Labor Movement in the United States: The AFL in the Progressive Era, 1910—1915, 1980.

I Have Never Killed Any One, But I Have Read Some Obituary Notices with Great Satisfaction

Supreme Court, but the earlier rulings were upheld, and Debs spent six months in jail. I will undertake to say, your Honor, that you can scarcely find a single book written by a student—and I will include all the works on criminology of the past—that has not made the statement over and over again that as the penal code was made less terrible crimes grew less frequent. Some of them perhaps are all right to be stone masons and carpenters, but none of them must be lawyers, none of them must be ministers, none of them must be doctors, they must not rise above manual trades.

Fact check: Clarence Darrow quote on obits misattributed to Mark Twain

They did not reason; they could not reason; they committed the most foolish, most unprovoked, most purposeless, most causeless act that any two boys ever committed, and they put themselves where the rope is dangling above their heads. Critic of the Increasingly skeptical of government power, Darrow concluded his public career as a critic of President 's 1882—1945; served 1933—45 programs introduced during the 1930s.
