Research Satellites for Atmospheric Science, 1978

ACRIM II was designed to aid accurate monitoring of total solar activity for long-term climate studies. Additional resources: If you find something you think may be a piece of UARS, do not touch it.

ESA launched a small Belgian satellite

As of February 2016, TMT and TTT are Version 4.

SRON

C25 As shown in Figure 4, C25 is constructed using a linear combination of AMSU channels 10,11,12, and 13.

SRON

Solid circles: Southern Hemisphere; open circles: Northern Hemisphere. Figure 4 shows the global CO distribution of 10 years SCIAMACHY observations with enhanced concentrations in central Africa
