Royal Courts of Justice Cause List

Administrative Court The Administrative Court assesses the lawfulness of the acts and omissions of central and local government, regulatory and disciplinary bodies, inferior courts and tribunals, and other public bodies and officials exercising public functions. There are no limits on the length of prison sentence or the fine the High Court can impose.

UK Court Structure

There is not a jury.

High Court Criminal Trials

If a party is a limited company, it must engage a solicitor to act on its behalf unless it has applied for and obtained leave to act by its director from the Registrar of the High Court.

List of Lord High Admirals of Scotland

You may contact the High Court Registry for information if the bailiff's service is required. The Governor's power to overrule decisions of the Recorder led to dissatisfaction as the Recorder was the only member of the Court who was a professional judge, and there were calls for the executive and judicial branches to be separated.
