Wade

HSK 4 is a 105 minute test. It assesses the candidate's ability to communicate on a wide range of topics and to communicate freely with locals.

ECVA

The Chinese themselves experimented with several systems to transcribe local expressions for non-Chinese publications, but in mainland China these were all replaced officially in 1979 by the clearer system. Students should be able to discuss various topics and should have fluent conversations with native speakers. Wade-Giles romanization, system of romanizing the modern Chinese written, originally devised to simplify Chinese-language characters for the Western world.
