Charles Dickens: Great Expectations

All of them had residences in Richmond or neighbouring Kew. I released the leg of the table, and ran for my life. The good stuff: An exciting cast of characters, most of them very weird, extravagant and almost to completely ridiculous.

Great Expectations by Charles Dickens

I got rid of my injured feelings for the time by kicking them into the brewery wall, and twisting them out of my hair, and then I smoothed my face with my sleeve, and came from behind the gate.

Great Expectations: Plot Overview

I may truly say I've never had this apron of mine off, since born you were. And they fired warning of him. The terrors that had assailed me whenever Mrs.

Charles Dickens: Great Expectations

This changes him and he is, essentially, a much better person for it.

Great Expectations

We went on our way upstairs after this episode; and, as we were going up, we met a gentleman groping his way down.

Great Expectations: Plot Overview

A lingering aristocratic hauteur, infiltrated by middle-class morality, gave it a reassuring social tone. Accordingly, I started at once, and she leaned upon my shoulder, and we went away at a pace that might have been an imitation founded on my first impulse under that roof of Mr. The good stuff: An exciting cast of characters, most of them very weird, extravagant and almost to completely ridiculous.
