Education of Henry Adams: An Autobiography by Henry Adams

Henry, however, was destined to move on to Washington with his father as the Adams family had for decades been a part of the national stage. He just starts rambling in a stream of consciousness, probably lights up a joint and then really gets going.

The Education of Henry Adams

In one section, he provides a 50 page analysis of a series of conversations between a handful of English politicians during a diplomatic negotiation with the US during the Civil War in which he was present. It provides a penetrating glimpse into the intellectual and political life of the late 19th century. The text is written as if readers are already familiar with the major figures and events of the time.

The Education of Henry Adams

At this point, the only life experiences we hear about are points of interest in traveling Europe and health updates about Secretary of State John Hay. Adams, unhappy nostalgics looking for a way out of the alienating, discordant present. I couldn't get distracted or be in a noisy, distracting environment usually not an issue for me to comprehend what Henry Adams was trying to convey.

Adams: An Education in by Marcellus Richie

He saw paradigm-shift inventions from telegraph and trains, to telephone and automobiles he even bought a car in his later years , steam then electricity, inventions like photography, then film and the early Hollywood silent films, finally airplanes and the discovery of radium and radiation. The community and culture that formed Henry's mind and being included family friends that would become historical figures for those of us born in the latter half of the succeeding century; figures that included, in addition to his family, Ellery Channing, Waldo Emerson, Richard Henry Dana, and above all for Henry, his hero, Charles Sumner.
