Government white paper on the report of the Administrative Board of Inquiry into the Acquisition and Construction of Mr. N. Muoneke's Building at Ogbete Way, Enugu (1900 edition)

It had been practised to some extent between 1948 and 1974 in the office of the local authority MOH, though without the use of the title of general manager or chief executive. The views of the Royal College of Nursing, the Royal College of Midwives, the Association of Nurse Administrators, the Confederation of Health Service Employees, and the National Union of Public Employees were highly consistent.

The BMA had complained at the perceived lack of time for consultation, challenged the concept of a non-medical chief executive, and demanded the retention of District Management Teams and the provision of an appeals mechanism against the decisions of a general manager. Although individual team members were to have personal responsibility for their own spheres of work, issues or decisions which were multi-disciplinary or strategic were to be handled collectively. Just one consultant respondent took the opposite view; the CHC was over-ready to encourage complaints.
