50 George Orwell Quotes on Truth, Power and Government (2019)

We are not interested in the good of others; we are interested solely in power, pure power. Orwell died in London on January 21, 1950.

George Orwell

All the others, even those who resembled ourselves, were cowards and hypocrites. What pure power means you will understand presently. The Party seeks power entirely for its own sake.

George Orwell

Orwell was severely wounded when he was shot through his throat. Orwell is best known for the dystopian novel Nineteen Eighty-Four published in 1949 and the satirical novella Animal Farm 1945 — they have together sold more copies than any two books by any other twentieth-century author. I want everyone to be corrupt to the bones.

George Orwell (Author of 1984)

George Orwell was a British journalist and author who is best known for his novels Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty-Four. Nothing in the world was so bad as physical. He will always be remembered for his remarkable journalism and essays that seem to be written for modern times years ago.

George Orwell

They pretended, perhaps they even believed, that they had seized power unwillingly and for a limited time, and that just around the corner there lay a paradise where human beings would be free and equal.
