The Radiant Past: Ideology and Reality in Hungary's Road to Capitalism

It does not merely offer another theory of transition, but also presents a clear interpretive scheme, combined with sociological theory and vivid ethnographic description. Michael Burawoy and Janos Lukacs consider this question from the standpoint of the Hungarian working class. A richly rewarding book, one that should interest political scientists in a variety of subfields, from area specialists and comparativists to political economists, as well as those interested in Marxist and post-Marxist theory.
