The murals in the chapel of All Saints, in the cathedral cloister, and those of the Abbey church of Prufening, a few miles away, are in too bad a state to be reproduced. The donor portrayed was Beno Korp, Bishop in the town of Västerås c. By the 12th century certain architects and sculptors had become highly sought-after by ecclesiastical and also secular patrons.

Romanesque Sculpture

The style can be identified across Europe, despite regional characteristics and materials. This combination of religious idealism with organizing ability gave life a purpose; what remained after the disintegration of the Carolingian empire, which had been too closely wedded to antiquity, had now to find its place in the new religious community, which laid down the future conditions of European civilization.
