Rose Muñoz, born and raised in Santa Barbara, is bilingual and bicultural. Finally, Illinois must remember that a reduction in administrative expenses is not the sole requirement for improving district effectiveness. Shaping a better, bolder, more equitable future for everyone For more than 85 years, the Metropolitan Planning Council MPC has partnered with communities, businesses, and governments to unleash the greatness of the Chicago region.

State Leadership in School District Reform: Lessons for Illinois

Any school district reorganization proposal presented to the county committee and State Board of Education must meet those requirements. This chapter will be of greatest help to county committee members and to county superintendents of schools. The chapter discusses the various methods used over the years by the Legislature to attempt consolidation and overall reduction in the number of school districts.
