Moreover, the election of a new President, Évariste Ndayishimiye, in May 2020 opens up opportunities for improving the situation and normalising our relations. Burundi entered a political crisis in 2015 over the issue of President Nkurunziza's third mandate. Coastal West Africa The West Coast region of Africa remains a significant concern for our country.

Eisenhower ordered Congo killing

If the men of the village resisted the demands for rubber it meant the death of their wife, child or chief. Today, we're mainly active in Niger, Mali, the Ivory Coast, Ghana and Liberia. He lectures on refugee and displacement in Africa, human rights law, international criminal law, International humanitarian law, good governance and International Justice developments.
