Online rights of way map

One of the best ways to explore East Sussex is on foot. Our tours will take you to award winning vineyards in East Sussex and beautiful towns and villages such as Eastbourne and Alfriston.

Long Man of Wilmington

The garden is a tranquil contrast to the busy streets of the town in the summer and sitting beside the pond one can fully understand why James had such affection for his garden. The spot is full of colour and life, and is one of Sussex's best-kept secrets. There were once 28 towns and villages in the marshland, but today only 17 remain.

Dog friendly walks in East Sussex

Kingley Vale is situated near the peak of a hill which dominates the local landscape, with picturesque views stretching across Sussex and into neighbouring Hampshire. Wine, chocolates and flowers of course! The castle still stands today and is accessible with around a half hour's walk on footpaths from Rye. The 1993 book, The Druid Way by Sussex author , drew attention to the supposed significance of the Long Man as a sacred site for the modern world.

Secret Sussex: 40 hidden gems in East and West Sussex you'll instantly fall in love with

This attribute alone would be enough to entice keen ramblers, but the main event of the trail is undoubtedly its iconic yew trees. Take a look at our collection, all located on the fabulous Camber Sands, a beach that you and your furry friend will love. Resistivity surveys conducted in the 1990s by R.

Vineyard Tours UK, East Sussex, Eastbourne, Alfriston, South Downs

Despite its vast size, you might never know it was there.
