reporting companies to establish and maintain systems of internal controls with respect to their financial information.

Reports of Investigations:

The club also organized and sponsored a Christmas-Carol Parade in which almost all of the civic and church organizations of the city participated, with live floats depicting scenes from the various carols without any sort of prize or award other than personal satisfaction. Of course, contravening historical precedent drives the originalists insane. It was not anything like the sort of place in which I'd ever imagined living.

Final Rule: Certification of Disclosure in Companies' Quarterly and Annual Reports

I, perhaps naively, believed that my identity was mine, a deeply personal characteristic I shared with nobody else. He was lost when he left and hoped to be found by fleeing into something greater than he ever was or ever hopes to become.
