Act 1, Scene 4 The brothers reveal to Eben they won't be working on the farm anymore, so Eben goes to milk the cows while Peter and Simeon get drunk. Madly in love with Eben and fearful of losing him because of the argument, Anna kills the infant, thinking this will prove to Eben her commitment to him. Two of the sons leave when Eben gives them the fare in return for their shares of the farm.

Desire Under the Elms Characters

The old man condemns them both, calls out God, and is content that the farm will not fall into anyone's hands.

However, an angry and distraught Eben threatens to tell the sheriff what she has done and departs. Bill had offered to show me around the city — and who was better qualified? How Prager worked with Prandtl in Goettingen, and how he accepted a professorship in Karlsruhe in 1933 only to be fired by Hitler. I had to admit that in Paris the visible flesh was much more artistically presented.
