王安石 1021

Wang's reforms were unpopular, and he was forced to resign in 1074. Wang ne pouvait pas compter sur l'honnêteté, et encore moins le dévouement, de la bureaucratie régulière.

Il a développé un programme de réformes de grande envergure qui a été vigoureusement attaqué de son propre jour et a été controversé depuis. Ces réformes démontrent l'importance que Wang attache aux politiques financières et économiques en tant qu'aspects positifs du gouvernement et, au-delà, elles reflètent sa conviction que le gouvernement pourrait et devrait encourager la productivité même si cela signifiait une augmentation des dépenses gouvernementales. Une section sur la poésie de Wang est dans Kojiro Yoshikawa, An Introduction to Sung Poetry, traduit par Burton Watson 1967.

It ordered groups of ten, fifty, and five hundred men security groups to be organized. Au cours de ces années, Wang fut impliqué dans plusieurs controverses, mais ses activités politiques furent interrompues par la mort de sa mère en 1063 et les deux années de deuil prescrites. Cette période vit le mariage de Wang avec une femme qui, comme sa mère, appartenait à la famille Wu, et au moins deux de ses cinq enfants étaient nés durant ces années.

Wang Anshi

Gentle reader may not immediately guess that this would be the famed, or infamed, Wang An-shih, whose reputation is sullied when viewed through the eyes of his chief contemporary political opponents, especially those of the statesman, Si Dong-po, and of the historian, Sima Guang-shan.

Students of the Outer College who passed a public and institutional examination were allowed to enter the Inner College.

The two measures that drew particularly heavy fire from conservatives were a land survey to reassess property taxes more equitably and a system that made the government an active agent in trade. Friend and foe alike, however, did not deny Wang's skill with the pen. It is hard to understand anything through the haze of twentieth-century inanities.

Biographie de Wang An

He created a fund for agricultural loans to farmers to spare them the exorbitant demands of moneylenders; he also replaced corvée labour with a hired-service system financed by a graduated tax levied on all families. This did not include the metropolitan and palace army.
