Hani Farsi

Contrary to the village's image of Oyashiro-sama, Hanyuu hates violence and suffering, and is devastated by the horrific acts that are committed in her name. In spite of her polite manners, Hana is capable of putting her foot down when she feels she is doing the right thing, as shown when she refused to heed her mother's orders to forsake Sensha-Dō, despite her love and respect for her. This the recollection of said conversation told from Daiba Nana's point of view.
