Is any one more unhappy, more ridiculous, than he who is always labouring to be thought so, or that is impatient when he is not thought so? This suit was also settled, with the Kassabs receiving a percentage of the book's profit, but also paying for MacDonald's legal expenses. After this she flies into the forest with her son, and is despoiled by robbers ; one of whom, however, on discovering her rank, relents, and becomes her protector.

This Work, I say, shall not only contain the various Impressions of my Mind, as in Louis the Fourteenth his Cabinet you have seen the growing Medals of his Person from Infancy to Old Age, but shall likewise include with them the Theatrical History of my Own Time, from my first Appearance on the Stage to my last Exit. They appeal to our sympathy only in misfortune and disaster; in more fortunate circumstances they run counter to moral laws and excite a mixture of admiration, horror, and even contempt.

Critics, like historians, should divest themselves of prejudice: they should never be misguided by the authority of a great name, nor yield that tribute to prescription, which is only due to merit. Two parts in one volume, First Editions, engraved title-page by Hole, slightly soiled, but otherwise a fine copy, sm
