

Memorials of the English and French Commissaries concerning the limits of Nova Scotia or Acadia.

[s.n.] - Map Wars: The Role of Maps in the Nova Scotia/Acadia Boundary Disputes of 1750 on JSTOR

Description: -

-Memorials of the English and French Commissaries concerning the limits of Nova Scotia or Acadia.

-Memorials of the English and French Commissaries concerning the limits of Nova Scotia or Acadia.

Notes: Text in English and French.

This edition was published in 1755

Filesize: 41.44 MB

Tags: #Settlement, #American #Beginnings: #1492

Biography

The French and Spanish troops shall evacuate all the territories, lands, towns, places, and castles, of his Most faithful Majesty in Europe, without any reserve, which shall have been conquered by the armies of France and Spain, and shall restore them in the same condition they were in when conquered, with the same artillery and ammunition, which were found there: And with regard to the Portuguese Colonies in America, Africa, or in the East Indies, if any change shall have happened there, all things shall be restored on the same footing they were in, and conformably to the preceding treaties which subsisted between the Courts of France, Spain, and Portugal, before the present war. French raid on the fishery at Kitty Vitty.

CO194

Washington DC: House of Representatives, 1856. It has been farther agreed, that his Most Christian Majesty shall cause the necessary passports to be given to the said vessels; that, for the greater security, it shall be allowed to place two French clerks or guards in each of the said vessels, which shall be visited in the landing places and ports of the said islands and places restored to France, and that the merchandize which shall be found t herein shall be confiscated. Martin's-Lane, in the Strand, MDCCLVI.

The Memorials of the English and French commissaries concerning the limits of Nova Scotia or Acadia [microform] : Commissioners for Adjusting the Boundaries for the British and French Possessions in America : Free Download, Borrow, and Streaming : Internet Archive

Providence: Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantation, 1918. In every case, the writer decided the Acadians lacked the necessities. The Court of Appeal, with respect, compounded the errors of law.

Original Sources

Harper and Row, New York. The trial judge found as a fact, at para. The draught of a representation to his Majesty proposing that Philip Ludwell, Esquire, may be appointed of the Council of Virginia in the room of Thomas Lee, Esquire, deceased, having been prepared pursuant to the minutes of yesterday, was laid before the Board, agreed to, transcribed and signed.

Related Books

- Colonial homes of Palmerston North
- Introduction to human physiology
- Jack Tier - or, the Florida reef
- Fauna Norvegiae.
- Golden memories of the San Francisco Bay Area