It shall never be said that after saving my son's life you went away. .

Jean de l'Ours

Shortly after, the king returned and saw the sign at the window, and cursed all his seven sons ; but when he entered the house and the servants crowded around him to congratulate him and tell him about his beautiful daughter, then the king was amazed and became very melancholy. Scarcely had the gentlemen seen this beautiful lady she dazzled them on all sides , when the king, just think of it, began to dance with her the whole evening. While she was at her sisters' side, she drew out her handkerchief, and a bracelet fell out.
