HISTORY OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH*

Consequently, to receive unconverted persons, whether infants or adults, destroys the spiritual character of the body, and forms an unholy alliance with the world, instead of maintaining a broad and distinctive separation between them. It can only be known by divine revelation, and it is amply confirmed by the Holy Scriptures.

Report of the Committee of Inquiry into the Matter of St. Clement's Church (1879)

They can bring the moral force of their persuasion of their consistent living, and of their Christian character, to bear on all around them, as indeed they should; but as to authoritative administration, they can claim no right of interference with any except those with whom they hold covenant relations in the fellowship of the body.
