

Working together for the protection of children from abuse - procedures within the education service.

Department of Education and Science - Protecting children from abuse in schools

Description: -

-Working together for the protection of children from abuse - procedures within the education service.

-Working together for the protection of children from abuse - procedures within the education service.

Notes: Circular no. 4/88.

This edition was published in 1988

Filesize: 21.36 MB

Tags: #Role #of #Related #Professionals #in #Preventing #Child #Abuse #and #Neglect

Probation Service

Tell child you will need to talk to other adults in order to help him or her.

Probation Service

Readers are encouraged to take what is relevant to them, to modify the ideas to suit their own circumstances, and to disregard ideas that seems irrelevant or inappropriate. The Probation Service is a section of the Committee for Home Affairs and is committed to multi agency working.

Probation Service

The investigation can take place at the same time as a criminal investigation or criminal court case, but the focus will remain on the needs and wellbeing of the child or young person. Australasian Psychiatry, 22 4 , 370-373.

Protecting children from abuse in schools

Training about the role and work of partner organisations and in communication skills can help to reduce reliance on stereotypical beliefs about partners and unclear communication Darlington et al. Reflective practice and appropriate debriefing, ideally in supervision, can assist you to cope with the uncertainties of the role and strategise more effectively.

Related Books

- Political agenda of education - a study of colonialist and nationalist ideas
- Sacra rappresentazione - ovvero, Come il forte di Exilles fu conquistato ai francesi
- Measurement of grassland productivity - proceedings.
- Zaraza - \(desde una esquina con faroles\)
- Against the odds - battles at sea, 1591-1949