Palli Samaj By Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay

Not for feeble hearted people at all. This may be a biased review because this is the first Bengali classic that I have picked up and this book has left me mesmerized and emotional. He has conquered the minds of foreign readers by transcending his limited time and land and has attained an epoch-making status in the Bengali readership.

Scribbles of Soul

He had faced a lot of bitter and hostile criticism from many pockets of the society for outlining the realities that hid behind the blanket of casteism, rituals, and blind worship. ## Palli Samaj: The Homecoming by Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay

He paints a very realistic picture of human life in his writing, a living shadow story which is a unique creation in Bengali literature. Even if you take breaks while reading, you will not lose the link - that is the impact of the story and characters from the book. That couldn't happen, but thanks to the good translated versions by Prasanjit Mukherjee- the purpose is solved.
