were prevalent in many districts. For example, the Executive Summary of each report is sharply focused on reports of the significant types of violations and abuses of internationally recognized human rights, if applicable to the country concerned.

Submission to the Universal Periodic Review of Nepal

In 2017 enforced disappearance was made a crime in Nepali domestic law for the first time. It shall promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations, racial or religious groups, and shall further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace.

constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed.

OHCHR

The Council should allow the CHRSS to fulfil its responsibility with regard to all aspects of its mandate: investigation, evidence collection and preservation, monitoring, reporting, technical cooperation, and advice on transitional justice in all its dimensions: criminal accountability, truth-telling, reparations, full rehabilitation of survivors, and guarantees of non-recurrence including through legal and judicial reform, institution-building, and ultimately reconciliation. Similarly, Nepal noted recommendations to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance ICPPED. Until Namibia's independence in 1990, the LAC represented thousands of victims of apartheid South Africa's occupation army, including members of the Namibian liberation movement.
