Other people with disabilities may see themselves as members of a disability community and culture that shares common experiences e. Activities are grouped by subject in modules: Building Mentoring Relationships; Setting Boundaries; Communication; Youth Development and Cultural Competency. For example, rural Americans lack access to the wide range of services and supports available in urban areas Seekins, 1995; Stamm et al.

Social Security Online

Resources to meet the health care needs of Indians with disabilities are available through several existing programs.

Access Compliance Reference Materials

A major emphasis of the Alliance Project is to increase the success rate of special education and related services departments in acquiring grants from the OSEP Division of Personnel Preparation DPP. This includes services provided by your non-working spouse. For example, disability-related articles appear in several APA journals.
