This eight-volume set brings together seminal papers in Buddhist studies from a vast range of academic disciplines published over the last forty years. This book is composed of chapters written by established scholars in Buddhist studies who represent diverse disciplinary approaches from art history, religious studies, history and ethnography. The project-team produced two 30 minutes films on the ghost festival in Laos and China, one on urban funerals in Chiang Mai Thailand and several shorter clips dealing with funeral cultures in Laos, Thailand and China.

Buddhism in Southeast Asia

The Lovelorn Ghost and the Magical Monk: Practicing Buddhism in Modern Thailand. Although the dominant focus of Buddhist studies for the past century has been on doctrinal and philosophical issues, this volume concentrates on discourses that produced them, and why and how these discourses and practices shaped Theravada.
