Muncha! Muncha! Muncha! by Candace Fleming

. While he's dreaming of his mouth-watering carrots, the bunnies are diving over fences and swimming trenches to get the veggies first! This is a story of one Mr.

Muncha! Muncha! Muncha!

McGreely, who simply wants to plant his garden in peace.

Muncha! Muncha! Muncha! by Candace Fleming

McGreely makes when the sun comes up and the moon goes down and he sees what those twitch-whiskers have done.

Muncha! Muncha! Muncha! by Candace Fleming

After years of wishful thinking, Mr. Visit him online at GBrianKaras. So he built a nice wire fence around his garden to keep the bunnies out.

Candace Fleming

. I have read this story every night now for the past 3 months and I am sure that I will be reading it for at least another 3 - Muncha, Muncha, Muncha! Bright green leaves sprout from the rich soil. The pictures are nice to look at and follow the story.

Candace Fleming

This keeps them out overnight, but when Mr. McGreely's garden smells yum, yum, yummy. Mcgreely goes in the next morning with his basket to pick vegetables, the bunnies stow away in the basket, then jump out and start munching on the vegetables.
