Pussett was listed only once in the 2009 Tamworth Staffs telephone book. The Index column shows the relative probability of finding someone called FIDELL in this county or town, compared with the probability of finding them anywhere in Britain as a whole. An early bearer of the name was Nicholas de Sallowe, mentioned in the Shropshire Rotuli Hundredorum of 1254.

1881 Census

About 1881 England Census The 1881 British Isles Census was taken on the night of 3 April 1881. This is a name I would think is dying out as there are so few left. Keep in mind that you may have to look at several enumeration districts to find the page you want within a given folio since the page numbers start over with every ED.
