Prepare for a lot of spectacular landscape shots. The famous Ferg Burger is a must-do while not breaking the bank! Your best bet for backpacking New Zealand on a budget is to visit during shoulder season, so March to May, and September to November. You had better ask Mr.

Second

One brother stayed with their possessions while the other headed back to Helensville, from where a boat was eventually sent to retrieve the first. However, half-an-hour drive away is Wanaka, full of eccentric loveables, surrounded by the same gorgeous mountains of Queenstown, and still with a twinkling lake complete with that famous tree.

Along The Hilltops The Story Of The Summit Road

The second-hand shops in Welly are kickass actually, in New Zealand as a whole. Hongi — The traditional Maori greeting.

Along The Hilltops The Story Of The Summit Road

Great social scene with half the area dedicated to common areas. However, not all tour operators are created equal — that is for sure. Luckily, New Zealand had already begun diversifying its export trade.
