Why did George V issues letters patent

After two miscarriages, Charlotte became pregnant with what was hoped would be a grandson and the heir in the next generation to the British throne. Bathurst's response was the Orders-in-council of 11 and 25 November 1807.

Prince George Frederick Augustus, son of George III

Also in 1817 he made a signal speech to the Lords governing the conditions under which Napoleon had been sent to St Helena in which he made it clear the hardship the former emperor was facing.

Why did George V issues letters patent

Charles 1802—1842 Lady Bathurst died in January 1841, aged 75. George's recovery from his bereavement was slow, he became somewhat reclusive and dwelled excessively on the shock of the sad event which had overwhelmed him. Highly emotional by nature, George was extremely distraught.
