It becomes totally oblivious of its spiritual identity, its goal in life, and the opportunity for progress that the human form provides. It is the life of all transcendental knowledge.

By serving the Guru, the disciple develops humbleness and commitment that enables the Guru to impart knowledge.

Straightforwardness in action includes plainness in living, forthrightness in behavior, etc. Shree Krishna had previously used the expression yah pašhyati sa pašhyati they alone truly see, who see that... Now He states that it is not enough to see the presence of the soul within the body. Due to this continuity, the beginning and the end are not experienced by the souls.

Vaishnava song

In His pastime of loud roaring, before the mischievous and malicious rascals, He removes all fear of the vast ocean of material existence, by the effect of His unlimited compassion.
