Congregation for Doctrine of the Faith

My pioneer work in the Philippines, which resulted in the establishment of a public school system, is by far my most interesting experience since graduation from College. In 1806 some of the churches of the Kehukee withdrew from the parent body and organized the Chowan Association. As one priest wrote: In him we had a Guardian Angel, protecting and encouraging us in the darkest moments when the ignorance of the people whom we were called upon to save, and the continuous intrigues of the enemies of Orthodoxy contrived to dash our brightest hopes and to frustrate our efforts — it was such a comfort to know that in difficult moments, our leader was with us.

The Eponymous Flower: 5/31/15

On Friday before the fourth Sunday in October, 1835, the Association met at Red Bud Meeting House, in Franklin County. The Association determined to have two stated sermons at future sessions—the introductory and the conventional, or missionary sermon. Westford and New Ipswich Academies.

Concordia Historical Institute Quarterly

Johnson and the other brethren of the Association joined heart and hand in a great effort to give the gospel that saves to the people of this section. If the winds are favourable it will be at Leghorn about July 15. A fourth far surpasses them.

Yet all his riches and nobility could not free the proud Prince L.

Call Me Jorge...: Moving beyond Catholicism through interfaith dialogue

He died from typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks. It appeared of no use struggling against our misfortunes, so we resigned ourselves to our fate, and made ourselves as miserable as possible. Joshua JPT Jahrbücher für protestantische Theologie, Leipsic, 1875 sqq.
