Alternatively, the librarian may, on an individual basis, demonstrate how best to use the library facilities. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copy right or whose legal copyright term has expired. It was contended that the only question in the case was, whether the National Provincial Bank and its two branches were to be considered as three distinct holders, and so entitled each to the usual notice of dishonor ; or whether, as they were, in truth, the same establishment, and as the Portmadoc branch had not even endorsed the bill to the Pwllheli branch, the head bank in London ought not to have given notice to the plaintiffs, instead of to the Pwllheli branch.
