A divine project to save a kingdome:: Opened in a sermon to the Right Honorable the Lord Maior and court of aldermen, of the citie of London, at their anniversary meeting on Easter Munday, Apr. 22. 1644. at Christ

I dare say all you who are Publique-spirited men, are very thoughtfull to thinke how, and which way it might be brought about; that, if God see it fit, this Summer at the furthest might end these bloody warres, these uncomfortable divisions that are amongst us; And he that could suddainlyest procure it, would be one of the blessed'st men that ever trod on English ground. Minister of Gods word at Finchingfield in Essex. Minister of Gods word at Finchingfield in Essex.

Therefore till God be pacified, England shall never be quiet: but tranquillus Deut tranquillat omnia, pacifie God and you end all: Oh! That as they can come from none but him, so with the infinitest ease that can bee imagined, doth God, as send, so remove any of them, how heavy or strange soever it bee. Shall I thus requite the Lord, O foolish creature and unwise? That the pacifying of Gods wrath is the removing of the Doct. Thirdly, I will shew you whence it commeth, or what reason there is, that mans zeale should have such an influence upon the extinguishing of Gods wrath: And then make some application of it.
