Queen Elizabeth II: The Real Stories Behind the Tumultuous 1960s and '70s

To illustrate a point, she wanted to toss a stone into a pond to show how the ripples went out farther and farther. Arthur Arden, AKA Hans Gruper, wasn't the most likeable character, mostly due to the fact that he was a sadistic Nazi war criminal who experimented on his patients. No one was charged in the deaths of Diana and Al-Fayed, as Paul was himself killed.

She avoided being voted out at the first Tribal Council which her tribe attended. Briarcliff Manor, despite being a backdrop much of the time in Asylum, is indeed one of, if not the main character of the season, as a majority of what transpires is within its walls.
