Ratio Juris: On the putative genius of (our) constitutional democracy

Greater political competition could create space for new populist parties to emerge or for UMNO to take up a more populist mantle if its ethnic Malay constituency feared loss of status in a new political environment. We need to bring these wars to a close.

Rozell is a bit more optimistic, however, that we may now be in a Goldilocks zone for reducing executive power, where conditions are just right. Suspicious of centralized power, they distributed it throughout the government and the states.

Analysis Of Dana D. Nelson's Bad For Democracy

Current Issue On alternatives to military action: I think the much tougher but far more important work to do is to lead with diplomacy, holding the card of military involvement as the last resort.

Bad for Democracy

The sale was embraced by Israeli President Reuven Rivlin in a public letter of congratulations to Sheikh Hamad. The legislative power of the average democracy in Southeast Asia is barely above the global median.
