At the beginning of the third century a movement called Monarchianism had arisen, again in the West. Nor is it possible to distinguish Orthodoxy as a separate tradition until it can be differentiated from other Christian traditions most notably, Roman Catholicism and Protestantism.

Eastern Orthodox: 5 Key Evolution Events for Christian Denomination Since It Began

Decius believed that salvation lay only in the restoration of the ancient Roman spirit and a return to the neglected and scorned traditions. Cyprian hid, not from fear but in order to continue to direct the Church; in his absence the question arose about the lapsed Christians. As Schmemmann himself said: This book is not a scholarly investigation into the history of the Orthodox Church nor a mere manual.

A Brief Evaluation of Eastern Orthodox Theology

It was the last expression of the religious syncretism in which ancient paganism was to dissolve and die. The sense of history, its irreversibility, the unrepeating nature of time, and within this time the uniqueness and unrepeated quality of each event and each person, were all profoundly alien to Hellenic psychology. .
