. Gautier was a celebrated abandonné one who yields or abandons himself to something of the Romantic Ballet, writing several scenarios, the most famous of which is , whose first interpreter, the ballerina , was the great love of his life. The centre of scandal, and art and literary critic character 's life was through.

Mademoiselle de Maupin, Volume 1 (of 2) by Théophile Gautier

The church-bell of an invisible village softly rang the Angelus, and the silvery notes, which came but faintly to our ears because of the distance, were inexpressibly sweet.

Mademoiselle Maupin, the 17th

Mademoiselle de Maupin : a romance of love and passion : Gautier, Théophile, 1811

D'Albert and his mistress Rosette are both in love with the androgynous Théodore de Sérannes, whom neither of them knows is really Madeleine de Maupin.

Mademoiselle de Maupin v. 2 by Théophile Gautier

May I be called a niggardly fellow and a flat, if I don't shave you for nothing, on the word of an honest barber. Rosette has one arm under my neck and lies perfectly still for fear of waking me. I am not at all anxious to teach little fools to say the alphabet of love.
