Using First Person in an Academic Essay: When is It Okay?

We invite you to share this list with students or kids you know and use it as a spring summer board to come up with your own ideas—perhaps ideas more suited to your own circumstances.

WWII Diaries & Journals

The Youth First program will guide your children on a journey through the different stages of their financial life.

What Kids Can Do

From the third person, no-one need ascribe any absolute 'reality' to these concepts, and more than is ascribed to any other abstraction.

UNCENSORED HISTORY: Dark Chapters Of History: Images Of War, History , WW2: Atrocities By German Soldiers During WW2: First Person Accounts

We have produced close to 300 feature stories that present young people's lives, learning, and work, and their partnerships with adults both in and out of school. Y-Press reporters produced regular articles, audio commentaries, and profiles of young political activists around the country. When is the last time you spoke with one of them, and what did you talk about? A half hour later the girls, all second-year campers at a remarkable program called High Rocks, fan out through the woods to a morning of drama studies, media lab, carpentry, and horseback riding—joining a community that will nurture them for life.

Volunteering and Work Experience

We invite you to dip into this collection of contrasts and commonalities, and then to add your voice to the mix! Nearly all low-income and minority, every one of them was headed to college, with financial aid well in hand.

Experiences for Youth

Instructional and how-to type writing can be written in second person and some fiction -- although rarely. One can only point out the problems so many times without repeating oneself.

LA Youth » Behind bars: Four teens in prison tell their stories

It catered largely to a group of people who are not welcome in, or cannot afford, other places of homosexual social gathering. I know I had a high fever, and I wasn't coherent.
