Ara Parseghian, Notre Dame Coach Who Won Two Championships, Dies at 94

Comparing Brian Kelly to Legends Brian Kelly is the worst coach Notre Dame has ever allowed to oversee its football team for at least 90 games. Natural Enemies: Major College Football's Oldest, Fiercest Rivalry-Michigan vs. In my opinion Notre Dame has the richest college football legacy of all time.

Notre Dame football: 5 best seasons in Fighting Irish history

Despite not winning a national championship since 1988, the Irish are firmly entrenched as one of the elites in the sport. His fiery intensity slowly ate away at his health, eventually forcing him to retire from coaching forever at the age of forty-five.

Legendary former Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian dies

Parseghian came back the following weekend with the same belief and officially announced his resignation on December 15, 1974 citing health concerns and burnout.

Devine joins Rockne, Parseghian, Leahy, and Holtz

In my opinion this is a really good book to read about the colleges history and how one person can change the life of another forever. With the Cleveland Browns in 1948-49, he played for Paul Brown until an injury ended his playing career. His first coaching job was as an assistant to Woody Hayes at Miami.

Holtz Shook Down Thunder for Irish, Like Rockne, Leahy

In order, they defeated Northwestern 27-0, Tulane 41-0, and 16 USC 26-6. Parseghian was named Coach of the Year by Football News.

The Complicated Story of Lou Holtz at Notre Dame, Part 1 of 3

The teams traded possessions until late in the 4th quarter when Lujack and the offense strung together an 80-yard touchdown drive to pull ahead 14-12. He'll do a great job in preparing his football team.
