66 Themes [Memory Verse from Every Book in the Bible]

When I was a kid, reading these, I was convinced that RLS had written them when he was in fact himself still a child, that unlike everything else I read that was written for adults for children or for adults for other adults, these poems alone were written by a child for children, from a child's real and present experience. And, they are lovely without being overly sentimental.

150 Bible Memory Verses for Children on Apple Books

Full of wisdom and truth, this book will be a classic for many years to come. Here is a child who clambors and scrambles, All by himself and gathering brambles; Here is a tramp who stands and gazes; And here is the green for stringing the daisies! That means no permission is needed as long as you credit this Ministry-To-Children. Persist in this, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Free Bible Verse Copywork

The following lesson is just a guide to help teach students an overview of Acts 1-9. I could absolutely understand his annoyance at being sent to bed while it was still light in summer and I just wanted to be there with him.

A Child's Garden of Verses by Robert Louis Stevenson

This lesson does not reproduce any of their content, but only my own ideas after teaching it.
