daraKHt

He gasped as he talked, and his breath began to swell as he read along.

Hamesha hai vasl

I see him talking to his son Zariyun in his very unique and wonderful poem 'Darakht-e-Zard'. And in that state of gloom, he left the world. One day I read in the newspaper that John had died in the hospital last night.

Hamesha hai vasl

John would have shed more tears in reciting this poem than there were words in this long poem.

Main Bhi Hazir Tha Wahan, Zabt

John fought and killed himself all his life. میں بھی حاضر تھا وہاں ، ضبط سخن کر نہ سکا حق سے جب حضرت ملا کو ملا حکم بہشت عرض کی میں نے ، الہی . John did not recognize him at all.

Main Bhi Hazir Tha Wahan, Zabt

And even though his son recognized him, he did not show any special affection towards him.

daraKHt

In the back of this desolate and broken room, upon John's bed, he first told me the background of this poem and then he started reciting this poem.
